CREATIVE ALLIANCE'S RESIDENT ARTIST PROGRAM

DEADLINE: SAT, MARCH 3, 2018 - 7PM

The Creative Alliance Residency Program provides a highly visible, intense and creative environment for professional artistic exploration across all disciplines.

The program accommodates 8 resident artists, one in each of the studios, for terms of one to three years. It is intended for artists whose goal is to invigorate their work in an intensive, multi-disciplinary atmosphere. With the support of the Creative Alliance, resident artists will be at the center of the Baltimore art scene, with a wealth of community contacts and professional resources at their fingertips.

Specific benefits include:

- Built-in community of professional colleagues.
- Relationships with established artists, curators, collectors, and funders through ongoing studio visits & talks.
- Visibility through open studios public programs.
- Extensive connections and exposure to diverse audiences, professional opportunities, other artists and community organizations.
- Opportunity to present a major project in a 2-person gallery exhibition in a 2000 sq.ft gallery space and participation in an annual group show in an 800 sq. ft. gallery space, performance, screening, community arts program, or other appropriate project.
- Ability to use Creative Alliance as a fiscal sponsor for applications at a greatly reduced rate.
- Marketing support from Creative Alliance staff.
