

CREATIVE ALLIANCE'S RESIDENT ARTIST PROGRAM

DEADLINE:
FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 2020 – 5 PM

The Creative Alliance Residency Program provides an intensive, community-oriented, and creative environment for professional artistic exploration across all disciplines.

The program accommodates eight resident artists, one in each of the studios, for terms of one to three years. It is intended for artists whose goal is to invigorate their work in an intensive, multi-disciplinary atmosphere. With the support of the Creative Alliance, resident artists will be at the center of the Baltimore art scene, with a wealth of community contacts and professional resources at their fingertips.

Specific benefits include:

- Built-in community of professional colleagues.
- Relationships with established artists and curators through ongoing studio visits & talks.
- Below-market rent cost
- Visibility through open studio public programs.
- Extensive connections and exposure to diverse audiences, professional opportunities, other artists, and community organizations.
- Opportunity to present a major project through a gallery exhibition, performance, screening, community art program, or other proposed project.
- Ability to use Creative Alliance as a fiscal sponsor for applications at a greatly reduced rate.
- Marketing support from Creative Alliance staff.
- Opportunities to become a paid instructor through Creative Alliance's Workshop Program

HOW TO APPLY: Incomplete or late applications will not be considered:

- Submit the following materials with a $15 fee to Creative Alliance:
 - For credit card payments: must be made over the phone or in-person
 - For cash or check payments: must be made in-person or mailed postdated before deadline
- Documentation: Up to 15 images, OR 5 minutes of audio/video, OR 5 pages of written material submitted via google drive (send link to thomas@creativealliance.org).
